

ABSTRACT OF THE INVENTION

A medical diagnosis protocol that localizes a disorder to the brainstem and limbic system of the body using a step by step clinical protocol. Also described is a protocol to relate clinical symptoms to the brainstem and limbic system of the central nervous system of the body. The diagnosis protocol involves steps of 1) Patient history; 2) Clinical tests; 3) Laboratory tests; and 4) Confirmation of the diagnosis.